Lesson Guide

In-depth notes for Lease, mandate and commission agreement essentials - study, annotate, and revisit before client meetings.

Commercial clarity

Clients should understand who the agent represents, what service is being provided, how commission is calculated, when payment is due, and what happens if terms change. This must be clear before conflict arises.

Documents to review

For rentals, check lease term, deposit, monthly rent, handover condition, maintenance responsibilities, and payment channels. For sales and listings, check mandate type, marketing period, commission, asking price, and authority to advertise.

Practice output

Prepare a plain-language explanation of commission and mandate terms for a first-time seller, plus a plain-language rental handover explanation for a tenant.
